

Balance the following equations. Use the room below each equation to keep track of elements. (3pt each)

6) Convert the following Chemical equation into a sentence (write it out in words)

Two moles of solid potassium is added to two moles of liquid water to produce two moles of ^{aqueous} potassium hydroxide and one mole of hydrogen gas.